

Thank you for your interest in joining and supporting the Broken Arrow Arts and Humanities Council.

An annual membership provides you with information and discounts on upcoming Arts Council events in Broken Arrow. Along with financial support from the Oklahoma Arts Council and local sponsorships, it also supports the following activities:

- Encore Series – Four performances per season featuring local, national and international musical artists at the BA Performing Arts Center; Arts Council Members have the added benefit of two-for-one priced season tickets!
- Lunch Box Series – Every Tuesday afternoon (Noon – 1 p.m.) in April (Downtown BA Library) and October (South BA Library), local and regional authors discuss their books, characters, creative writing and more. Free to the public!
- Tuesdays In The Park – The Arts Council’s “signature” event; Live music from local and regional artists every Tuesday in June from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m. at Central Park on Main Street. Bring a picnic basket and blanket or lawn chairs and enjoy. Free to the public!
- Art After Hours – The Arts Council’s oldest event; Usually two or three events a year on a Thursday evening featuring local and regional artists and exhibiting their works. Free to the public!
- Art in Public Places – Partnership with the City of Broken Arrow to install works of art in public settings throughout Broken Arrow. (See “Country Chic” at the Downtown BA Library.)

We appreciate your interest and hope you will consider supporting the arts for Broken Arrow and surrounding communities with your donation.
